AMAZING GRACE*

PFC James F. Ryan III
North Charleston Police Department (Following one verse of Amazing Grace, please depart in silence.)

* Please stand if you are able.

The Silent Witness Story

In 2016, 39 South Carolinians were killed by their intimate partners. As citizens of this state, we have a responsibility to take a stand against this injustice. Therefore, in 1998 our state joined with more than 40 other states in a mission “to promote peace, healing and responsibility in adult relationships.”

During the 20th annual Silent Witness ceremony, wooden silhouettes represent the women and men who have died due to domestic violence in South Carolina in 2016. This year, there are 40 silhouettes; 34 are for the known female homicide victims, five are for the known male victims, and one represents those victims of whom we are unaware.

The South Carolina Attorney General’s Office, through the S.T.O.P. (Services, Training, Officers, and Prosecutors) Violence Against Women program, hosts this annual remembrance. Other contributing citizens and organizations are acknowledged at the end of this book.

*This book is dedicated to the women and men of South Carolina
who lost their lives
due to domestic violence in 2016.

*The stories in this book were compiled using incident reports from local law enforcement and data from the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division. All defendants are presumed innocent unless and until they are proven guilty in a court of law.

Our Lives After

Have been slow-going, have been wind-swept. Not downpour, exactly.
More like, drizzle. We have learned a new word for silence.

One that doesn't mean still or hush,
more like echo. I love the feeling of being tired, just complete exhaustion, where there's no room

To think of our lives after, but only the whole of the world as it unfolds.
Blue violet by violet, slow cast of shadow, a yawn of stars.

Your name does not grow quiet with time, but calls us out to meet each other and the early afternoon on foot. Come here, I want to tell you,

Whoever you are, not every hand that is raised will hurt you. When we think of it, our lives after have been burst open,
so that you could tell me the same.

Unknown

Domestic violence affects us all.

Domestic violence cuts across gender, race and ethnicity. People in every socioeconomic status experience this type of violence. Domestic violence victims are all around us: in our neighborhoods, workplaces and our places of worship.

Therefore, let us have a moment of silence to remember those victims of whom we are unaware.

Silent Witness Information

The South Carolina Office of the Attorney General works diligently throughout the year to collect information about domestic violence homicides. This is the 20th year the office has held the Silent Witness Memorial during October to recognize the victims of this horrific crime.

The information for the Silent Witness Memorial is compiled with the assistance and cooperation of the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division (SLED) and the offices of South Carolina solicitors, sheriffs, coroners, and police departments.

Every effort is made to contact the victims' families. The loved ones of these victims provided the photographs found in this book.

500 books printed at $4.97 each, total cost of $2,483.24.
